Art Unit: 1651

The amendment filed 5/30/03 is acknowledged. Claims 1-7 are being considered on the merits.

Claims 8-9 are withdrawn from consideration as directed to a non-elected invention.

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

Claims 1-7 are/remain rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Bedford et al. taken with Garnett et al. and Baisted for the reasons as stated in the last Office action and the further reasons below..

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments have been fully considered but they are not deemed to be persuasive.

Applicant's appear to argue that the replacement of "effectiveness of an enzyme" with "degradation by an enzyme of the neutral detergent fiber" changes the crux of the invention. However, the "effectiveness" of the enzyme is unchanged. The "degradation of neutral detergent fiber" is merely a tool used by applicant to test the effectiveness of enzymes upon addition of lysolecithins and other biosurfactants (See, e.g., Specification, page 5). Moreover, the results presented at Table 2, page 11, suggest that the use of lysolecithin (⁵) is inferior in its effectiveness to various other compositions for this purpose.

Applicant also argues that the references cited in the obviousness rejection are silent regarding the improvement of the degradation of neutral detergent fiber as now recited and that Garnett et al. is merely related to the increased uptake of nutrients and effects as a growth promoter of lysolecithin. This argument is misleading, since applicant likewise uses animal weight gain as a tool to assess the effectiveness of the combination of enzyme(s) with a surfactant. Therefore it is clear that the purpose of the enzymatic treatment is the same, i.e., to improve nutrient availability of foods for animals.

Art Unit: 1651

In addition, any favorable results presented in the written disclosure are not commensurate in scope with the claims under examination with respect to the specific activity and nature of the enzyme(s) and the nature and concentration of the lysolecithin used in the method as claim designated.

The scope of the showing must be commensurate with the scope of claims to consider evidence probative of unexpected results, for example. In re Dill, 202 USPQ 805 (CCPA, 1979), In re Lindner 173 USPQ 356 (CCPA 1972), In re Hyson, 172 USPQ 399 (CCPA 1972), In re Boesch, 205 USPQ 215, (CCPA 1980), In re Grasselli, 218 USPQ 769 (Fed. Cir. 1983), In re Clemens, 206 USPQ 289 (CCPA 1980). It should be clear that the probative value of the data is not commensurate in scope with the degree of protection sought by the claim.

Therefore the rejection is deemed proper and it is adhered to.

No claim is allowed.

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
